

National Institute of Open Schooling
Secondary Course – Social Science
Lesson 0: Introduction to Social Science
Worksheet

1. “Social Science is a way to understand the society”. Analyse.
2. Which aspect of the painting on the wall makes you think that it might have been some kind of a ritual?
3. Describe those activities which made the early primitive humans different from the one’s we see today.
4. “Geography of any place helps us to understand the life and history of that society”. Discuss.
5. Think about the problems of today’s society. What possible solutions can you offer for atleast one of those problems?
6. Analyse the themes of Bhimbetka cave paintings.
7. Discuss the factors that helped in the growth of towns and cities.
8. Discovery of fire was a very important contribution in the life of humans. Analyse.
9. Analyse the features of agriculture that were practiced in the Harappan Civilization.
10. Describe the features that makes the town planning of the Indus valley civilization most remarkable in the world.