

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course: Business Studies
Lesson 8: Self Employment
Worksheet-8

1. Self-employment involves doing something on one's own to earn one's livelihood. With reference to this, explain the concept of self-employment. Also, explain the characteristics of it.
2. How does self-employment play an important role in making one's livelihood?
3. Your friend wishes to run an enterprise. He wants some ideas from you about the avenues in which self-employment opportunities are available. Explain to him the various avenues available for self-employment in different areas.
4. How does National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development help small businesses in establishment?
5. Discuss the classifications of small businesses in India on the basis of investment in fixed capital in plant and machinery or on the basis of nature or place of operation.
6. How do small businesses in India play an important role in the socio-economic development of a country?
7. Discuss the scope for small businesses in India.
8. What are the steps taken by the Government for development of small businesses in India?
9. Discuss the role of State Small Industries Development Corporations and SIDBI in providing support to small businesses.
10. Your friend does not know about the small business. Explain to him the various characteristics of small businesses with the help of real life examples.