

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course- Geography
Lesson 17: Climate of India
Worksheet-17

1. “Regional diversity in climatic conditions is a reality in India.” Justify the statement.
2. How does physiography influence the climate of India?
3. “The complete reversal in the direction of winds over India bring about a sudden change in season.” Explain with a suitable example.
4. Describe the influence of jet stream on the climate of India.
5. Why India receives most of its rainfall in summer season?
6. On an outline map of India, show the rainfall distribution of south west monsoons.
7. Describe the characteristics of south-west monsoons.
8. Explain why the coastal areas of Bay of Bengal receives rain during retreating southwest monsoon while rest of India is rainless.
9. Describe the annual distribution of rainfall in India with the help of a map.
10. “Despite the regional diversities in climatic conditions, there is a climatic unity in India”. Justify.