

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course: Mass Communication
Lesson 26A: Types of Traditional Media
Worksheet – 26A

1. Using a table Show the five types of traditional media.
2. Evaluate the importance of traditional media in the rural environment in present scenario and also describe their five characteristics.
3. Describe the different types of traditional plays and write five points to show their importance.
4. Make a comparative study of street play and puppetry.
5. Watch a puppet show and write down your own experiences.
6. Traditional music is an important type of traditional media Using a table show its various types.
7. Listen to any one of the regional concerts and share your experience with your family.
8. What is the main function of paintings? View various paintings engraved on the walls of Bhimbetka cave. Discuss usefulness of cave paintings with your friends.
9. Story-telling and listening has been an important part of the exchange of ideas in Indian society. Listen to a story and make a list of all the strengths of the story.
10. Do a comparative study of Verbal and Non communication?